Substitution of regulation 2 of Regulations

3. The Regulations are amended by the substitution for regulation 2 of the following regulation:

“Application of regulations

2. (1) The provisions of these regulations apply to the whole of Namibia during the period of lockdown.

(2) If there is a conflict between the provisions of these regulations and any other law the provisions of these regulations prevail.”.

Substitution of regulation 3 of Regulations

4. The Regulations are amended by the substitution for regulation 3 of the following regulation:

“Period of lockdown

3. The country wide lockdown starts from 23:59 on 17 April 2020 and ends at 23:59 on 4 May 2020.”.

Substitution of regulation 4 of Regulations

5. The Regulations are amended by the substitution for regulation 4 of the following regulation:

“Closure of schools and higher education institutions

4. All schools and higher education institutions in Namibia must remain closed during the period of lockdown, but the closure of schools and higher education institutions does not prevent -

(a) in the case of a state school, the relevant minister responsible for education; and

(b) in any other case, the governing bodies of schools and institutions, from employing other alternative forms of learning that do not involve the physical presence of learners or students at the schools or institutions.”.

Amendment of regulation 5 of Regulations

6. Regulation 5 of the Regulations is amended -

(a) by the substitution for subregulation (1) of the following subregulation:

“(1) For the purpose of this regulation, a “public gathering” is a gathering of more than 10 persons for a collective purpose, but does not include a situation where -

(a) such number of persons coincidentally find themselves at a specific place at the same time; or

(b) all persons at the gathering are members of the same household gathered at their place of residence.”;

(b) by the insertion after subregulation (1) of the following subregulations:

“(1A) During the period of lockdown all public gatherings are prohibited, except where a gathering is for -

(a) persons attending a funeral in which case the persons gathered may not exceed 10 persons;

(b) meetings of a governmental institution at national, regional and local levels or the Cabinet or the Parliament, where the matter to be addressed at the meeting is so critical that it cannot be postponed or whenever a meeting is required to be held by any law; or

(c) the purpose of conducting of, or engaging in, any activity in connection with the provision of critical services or essential goods as contemplated in any provision of these regulations.

(1B) Persons who gather in the circumstances referred to in subregulations (1) and (1A) must at all times adhere to the measures to combat, prevent and suppress the spread of COVID-19 as specified in and under these regulations.”.

Substitution of regulation 6 of Regulations

7. The Regulations are amended by the substitution for regulation 6 of the following regulation:

“Prohibition on movement of persons and goods within zone or between zones

6. (1) For purposes of these regulations, Namibia is divided into zones specified in Annexure A.

(2) During the lockdown period, a person may not enter into or depart from one zone to another zone, except that this provision may not be construed as preventing a person from movement within the same zone in which he or she is located as long as that person complies with the requirements of these regulations relating to the movement of persons and goods.

(3) A person who contravenes or fails to comply with subregulation (2) commits an offence and is on conviction liable to a fine not exceeding N$2 000 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months or to both such fine and such imprisonment.
(4) If an authorised officer finds a person under circumstances which create a reasonable suspicion that the person is likely to contravene subregulation (2), that authorised officer may instruct the person to stop the journey in question and failure to obey such an instruction is deemed to be a contravention of, or failure to comply with that subregulation, and that person is liable to the penalties provided for in subregulation (3).

(5) A person -

(a) who holds a permit referred to in subregulation (6) does not contravene subregulation (2) if he or she enters into or departs from a zone as contemplated in that subregulation; and

(b) referred to in subregulation (7) does not contravene subregulation (2) if he or she enters into or departs from a zone as contemplated in that subregulation.

(6) If a person wishes to enter into or depart from a zone for -

(a) purposes of receiving essential medical treatment;

(b) purposes of attending a funeral of a family member, an acquaintance or a dependant;

(c) purposes of assisting a family member, an acquaintance, dependant who is ill or otherwise suffers from a distressing situation;

(d) any other reason which an authorised officer considers sufficient to warrant the entering into or departing from the zone.

that person must obtain a permit from an authorised officer nearest to that person or at the point of entry into or exit from a zone, authorising entry into or departure from a zone or travel between zones which would otherwise have been a contravention of subregulation (2).

(7) A person is exempted from the requirement of obtaining a permit to enter or depart as contemplated in subregulation (6), if that entering or departure is necessary for purposes of -

(a) transporting essential goods;

(b) performing an action necessary for the enforcement of law or public order;

(c) facilitating the distribution of food or other necessities of life;

(d) maintaining or repairing infrastructure necessary or useful for the provision of essential goods or critical services; or

(f) performing a critical service that cannot reasonably be postponed.”.
