Civil Defence Act, 1966

Act 39 of 1966

Published in South African Government Gazette no. 1567 on 19 October 1966

Assented to on 6 October 1966

Commenced on 1 April 1969 by Proclamation 205 of 1969

[Up to date as at 10 September 2021]

Amended by [Civil Defence Amendment Act, 1967 \(Act 69 of 1967\) on 1 June 1967]

Amended by [Defence Act, 2002 \(Act 1 of 2002\) on 15 July 2002]

[The Application of the Provisions of the Civil Defence Act, 1966, to the Territory of South-West Africa Proclamation 205 of 1969 (RSA) (RSA GG 2495), effective 1 April 1969, provides that certain provisions in the Act shall be construed in certain ways in the application of the Act to South West Africa, without technically amending the Act. See annotations to individual sections.]

[APPLICABILITY TO SOUTH WEST AFRICA: Section 19 of the original Act stated: "This Act and any amendments thereof shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel referred to in section three of the South West Africa Affairs Amendment Act, 1951 (Act No. 55 of 1951)." This section was substituted by the Civil Defence Amendment Act 69 of 1967 to give the State President power to declare any or all of the provisions of the Act and any of its amendments applicable in the territory of South West Africa. The Act was again made applicable to South West Africa by RSA Proc. 205/1969 (RSA GG 2495), which stated: "Under the powers vested in me by section 19 of the Civil Defence Act, 1966 (Act 39 of 1966), I hereby declare that, subject to the provisions of the Schedule to this Proclamation, all the provisions of the said Act shall apply mutatis mutandis in the territory of South-West Africa [including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel referred to in section 38(5) of the South-West Africa Constitution Act, 1968 (Act 39 of 1968)], and in relation to all persons in that portion of the said territory known as the "Rehoboth Gebiet" and defined in the First Schedule to Proclamation 28 of 1923 of the Administrator of the said territory, with effect from the first day of April 1969." [words in square brackets appear in the Government Gazette with the brackets].]

[TRANSFER TO SOUTH WEST AFRICA: The Administrator-General acquired authority to administer this Act in South West Africa by virtue of RSA Proc. 205 of 1969. This did not qualify as a "transfer proclamation" in terms of the Executive Powers Transfer (General Provisions) Proclamation, AG 7 of 1977, which defines "transfer proclamation" in section 1 as "a proclamation by the Administrator-General by which the administration of the affairs of the territory in relation to any matter is transferred from a Minister of the Republic to the Administrator-General" (emphasis added).

Therefore, the Executive Powers Transfer (General Provisions) Proclamation, AG 7 of 1977, was not applicable to this Act.]

[After the amendment to section 19, the Act was amended in South Africa prior to Namibian independence by the Defence Amendment Act 85 of 1967 (RSA GG 1776), the Civil Defence Amendment Act 5 of 1969 (RSA GG 2301) and the Defence Further Amendment Act 83 of 1974 (RSA GG 4508). However, section 19 as amended by Act 69 of 1967 made amendments to the Act in South Africa applicable to South West Africa only if they were declared to be so applicable by proclamation, and no such proclamations could be located. The Civil Protection Act 67 of 1977 (RSA GG 5555), which repealed the statute in South Africa, was not made applicable to South West Africa.]
