[None of the amendments to the Act in South Africa after the date of the earliest transfer proclamation were applicable to South West Africa because none were made expressly so applicable.]

3. Dealing in, use or possession of potentially dangerous dependence-producing drugs prohibited

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any law contained, any person -

4. Saving

The provisions of this Act relating to dangerous dependence-producing drugs or potentially dangerous dependence-producing drugs, shall not affect the provisions of the Medical, Dental and Pharmacy Act, 1928 (Act No. 13 of 1928), or any other Act, in relation to any substances regarded for the purposes of the Medical, Dental and Pharmacy Act, 1928, or any other Act, as habit-forming drugs or potentially harmful drugs and which are regarded for the purposes of this Act as dangerous dependence-producing drugs or potentially dangerous dependence-producing drugs.

[The Medical, Dental and Pharmacy Act 13 of 1928 was modified and extended to South West Africa by SA Proclamation 3 of 1929 (SA GG 1749 and OG 301). It was repealed, with the exception of sections 83 and 83bis, by the Medical, Dental and Supplementary Health Service Professions Act 56 of 1974 (RSA GG 4445), which was brought into force on 21 February 1975 by RSA Proc. R.52/1975 (RSA GG 4594) and was made explicitly applicable to South West Africa (section 65). The two remaining sections of the Act were repealed in South Africa by the Health Act 63 of 1977 (RSA GG 5558), which was brought into force in relevant part on 1 September 1977 by RSA Proc. R.175/1977 (RSA GG 5716). That Act was not made explicitly applicable to South West Africa, but probably applied by virtue of the statement in section 99 of Act 13 of 1928 that, once the Act was applied to South West Africa, the “territory shall, for all purposes of this Act, be deemed to be a province of the Union”. All of the repeals took place prior to the relevant date of transfer of administration to South West Africa, as Act 13 of 1928 would have fallen under the Executive Powers (Health) Transfer Proclamation, AG 14 of 1977, dated 1 December 1977. The relevant law for the purposes contemplated in this section would now be the Medicines and Related Substances Control Act 13 of 2003, which has replaced the Medicines and Related Substances Control Act 101 of 1965 (RSA). However, the Schedules of the Medicines and Related Substances Act 101 of 1965 (RSA) continue to apply until the Minister publishes a notice in the Gazette in terms of section 29(1) of Act 13 of 2003.]

6. Duty of certain persons to report to police certain information

- (1) If the owner, occupier or manager of any place of entertainment, or any person in control of or who has the supervision of any place of entertainment, has reason to believe that any person in or on such place of entertainment has in his possession, uses or deals in any dependence-producing drug or any plant from which such drug can be manufactured in contravention of the provisions of this Act, such owner, occupier or manager or person in control of or who has the supervision of such place of entertainment, shall forthwith report his suspicion to any police officer on duty at the nearest police station and shall, at the request of such police officer, furnish such police officer with such details at his disposal regarding the person in respect of whom the suspicion exists.
- (2) Any person who fails to comply with the provisions of subsection (1), shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction -
 - (a) in the case of a first conviction, to a fine not exceeding R30 000 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding 15 years or to both such fine and such imprisonment;
[paragraph (a) amended by Act 25 of 1987]
 - (b) in the case of a second or subsequent conviction, to a fine not exceeding R50 000 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding 25 years or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

[paragraph (b) amended by Act 25 of 1987]

- (3) No prosecution shall be instituted in respect of an offence referred to in this section except upon the written authority of the Attorney-General concerned.

8. Forfeiture

- (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any law contained, the court convicting any person of an offence under this Act shall declare -

 - (b) any vehicle, vessel, aircraft or receptacle or other thing which was used for the purpose of or in connection with the commission of the offence or for the purpose of conveying or removing any dependence-producing drug or any plant referred to in paragraph (a) which was used for the purpose of or in connection with the commission of the offence, or the rights of the convicted person to such vehicle, vessel, aircraft, receptacle or thing;

[paragraph (d) substituted by Act 80 of 1973]

to be forfeited to the State.

[The Banks Act 23 of 1965 has been replaced by the Banking Institutions Act 2 of 1998. The Building Societies Act 24 of 1965 has been replaced by the Building Societies Act 2 of 1986. The Financial Institutions (Investment of Funds) Act 56 of 1964 was repealed by the Financial Institutions (Investment of Funds) Act 39 of 1984, which applied to South West Africa and is still in force.]

- (2) A declaration of forfeiture under subsection (1)(b) or (c) shall not affect the rights which any person other than the convicted person may have to the vehicle, vessel, aircraft, receptacle, thing or immovable property concerned, if it is proved that he did not know that the vehicle, vessel, aircraft, receptacle, thing or immovable property was used or would be used for the purpose of or in connection with the commission of the offence concerned or that he could not prevent such use.
- (3) The provisions of section 360(4) and (5) of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1955 (Act No. 56 of 1955), shall mutatis mutandis apply to any declaration of forfeiture under this section.

[The Criminal Procedure Act 56 of 1955 was never applicable to South West Africa. The South West African equivalent was the Criminal Procedure and Evidence Proclamation 30 of 1955, which was replaced by the Criminal Procedure Ordinance 34 of 1963, which, with the exception of sections 300(3) and 370, has been replaced by the Criminal Procedure Act 51 of 1977.]

- (4) If any immovable property is declared to be forfeited under subsection (1)(c), the registrar or clerk of the court making the declaration shall transmit the title deeds of such property to the registrar of deeds concerned who shall endorse a note on the title deeds of such property to the effect that the said property has so been declared forfeited.

- (5) Any person who has the possession or custody of any title deed or bond required by a registrar or clerk of the court for the purposes of any endorsement in terms of subsection (4), shall deliver such deed or bond to the registrar or clerk of the court within a period of fourteen days after the registrar or clerk of the court has demanded it in writing.
- (6) If any such person notifies the registrar or the clerk of the court in writing at the time of the delivery of such title deed or bond that he has a right of retention in respect thereof, the registrar or clerk of the court, as the case may be, shall return such title deed or bond to such person as soon as it is no longer required by him for the purposes of subsection (4).
- (7) Any person who fails to comply with the provisions of subsection (5), shall be liable for the costs which the registrar or the clerk of the court concerned may incur in obtaining an order of the court for the production of such deed or bond.

9. Power of court to cancel certain licences

When any person is convicted of a contravention of section 6, the court convicting such person may cancel any licence, issued in terms of any law, which relates to the place of entertainment concerned and of which such person was the holder at the time when such contravention occurred.
