 - (b) casinos and gambling houses; and
 - (c) nightclubs.
- (4) During the specified period, the following businesses, operations and activities are permitted subject to the condition that the people attending the event inclusive of the organisers do not exceed the number of people stipulated for a gathering in regulation 6(1) and that the head of the institution or the organiser of the event keeps and maintains a register that contains the full name, identification number or passport number and telephone number or cellular phone number of each client or customer that visits the business or attends the event -

- (a) sporting events, other than contact sports;
 - (b) entertainment events and concerts; or
 - (c) seminars, conferences, workshops and summits.
- (5) Every head of the institution or the manager or person in control of any business, operation and activity which is permitted during the specified period must ensure that the persons accessing the premises and services of the business, operation or activity at all times adhere to the measures to combat, prevent and suppress the spread of COVID-19 as specified in and under these regulations.
- (6) A person who contravenes or fails to comply with the requirements of subregulation (2), (3) or (4) commits an offence and is on conviction liable to a fine not exceeding N$2 000 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

9. Additional provisions relating to workplace

- (1) Heads of institutions are encouraged to allow vulnerable employees to work from home, subject to suitable arrangements between the employer and employee.
- (2) Heads of institutions are encouraged to provide masks to their employees.
- (3) Heads of institutions must ensure that their employees at all times adhere to the measures to combat, prevent and suppress the spread of COVID-19 as specified in and under these regulations.

10. Restrictions relating to entry into and departure from restricted areas

- (1) During the specified period, a person may not -
 - (a) enter a restricted area; or
 - (b) depart from a restricted area to any other part of Namibia,unless that person is in possession of a valid permit issued by a police officer under subregulation (2) and which permit the person must, on request by a police officer, produce to that police officer.
- (2) Subregulation (1) is not construed as preventing a person from moving within a restricted area as long as that person complies with the requirements of these regulations relating to the movement of persons or goods.
- (3) A person who wishes to enter into or depart from a restricted area, for purposes of -
 - (a) receiving essential medical treatment which cannot reasonably be performed outside or inside the restricted area as the case may be, and which cannot reasonably be postponed;
 - (b) transporting essential goods;
 - (c) performing an action necessary for the enforcement of law or public order;
 - (d) maintaining or repairing infrastructure necessary or useful for the provision of essential goods or critical services;
 - (e) performing a critical service that cannot reasonably be postponed; or
 - (f) performing any other function or doing any other thing which the police officer considers sufficient to warrant the entering into or departing from the restricted area with due consideration of the fact that travel to and from the restricted area must be minimised: Provided that the attendance of a funeral, wedding or other family event is (except for the funeral of a parent, child, spouse or sibling) not deemed to be a sufficient reason to enter or leave a restricted area for the purposes of this paragraph, may request a police officer nearest to that person or at the point of entry into or exit from a restricted area, to issue a permit authorising entry into or departure from the area.

- (4) Subject to subregulation (5) a permit referred to in subregulation (2) may contain conditions relating to any of the following matters -
 - (a) the entering of quarantine facilities at a place designated in terms of the health regulations;
 - (b) having a specified test taken at a specified place; and
 - (c) entering isolation facilities if the result of the test indicates that the person is infected with COVID-19; and
 - (d) that persons who are travelling from a restricted area to another area be subject to quarantine measures specified in the health regulations or guidelines.
- (5) The Inspector-General of the Namibian Police may after consultation with the Executive Director of the Ministry of Health and Social Services issue directives to police officers relating to the issuing of permits, which directives must be consistent with these regulations, and which directives may require consultation with any functionary indicated in the directives.
- (6) During the specified period, a person entering into or departing from a restricted area must, at every point where so required by an authorised officer, enter into a register kept by an authorised officer, the particulars that are specified in that register.
- (7) A person who contravenes or fails to comply with subregulation (1) or (6), or fails to comply with a condition imposed under subregulation (3), commits an offence and is on conviction liable to a fine not exceeding N$2 000 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months or to both such fine and such imprisonment.
- (8) If an authorised officer finds a person under circumstances which create a reasonable suspicion that the person is likely to contravene subregulation (1) or (6), that authorised officer may instruct the person to stop the journey in question and failure to obey such an instruction is deemed to be a contravention of, or failure to comply with that subregulation, and that person is liable to the penalties provided for in subregulation (7).

11. Curfew

- (1) Subject to subregulation (2), a person may not leave his or her place of residence between 20h00 and 05h00 on each day.
- (2) A person does not contravene subregulation (1) if that person leaves his or her place of residence for purposes of -
 - (a) providing a critical service, provided the person is in possession of a document issued under subregulation (6);
 - (b) seeking medical assistance;
 - (c) seeking law enforcement assistance; or
 - (d) attending to any other emergency situation that could not be reasonably avoided.
- (3) An authorised officer may instruct a person to return to his or her place of residence if that officer finds a person at a place which is not his or her place of residence during the curfew hours specified in subregulation (1).
- (4) A person who contravenes subregulation (1) or fails to comply with an instruction under subregulation (3) commits an offence and is on conviction liable to a fine not exceeding N$2 000 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months or to both such fine and such imprisonment.
- (5) For the purpose of facilitating the enforcement of the curfew referred to in subregulation (1), the head of the institution involved in the provision of a critical service or a person delegated by the head of the institution must determine -

- (a) the critical service to be performed during the curfew hours; and
 - (b) the staff members who must perform the critical service during the curfew hours.
- (6) After making a determination in terms of subregulation (5), the head of the institution or a person contemplated in that subregulation must issue a document to every staff member who is to perform the critical service during the curfew hours referred to in subregulation (1).
- (7) The document referred to in subsection (6) -
- (a) must specify the name and surname of the staff member, the identification number of the staff member and the critical service and the name of the institution in sufficient detail; and
 - (b) be signed by the head of the institution or the person referred to in subregulation (5).
- (8) A person performing a critical service must show the document issued to him or her in terms of subregulation (6) to an authorised officer or any person in relation to whom he or she may seek to perform a function.

12. Prohibition relating to entry into Namibia

- (1) Subject to subregulation (2), (5) and (6), every person who -
- (a) is not a Namibian citizen;
 - (b) does not hold a permanent residence permit for Namibia;

 - (f) is not a spouse or child of a person referred to in paragraphs (a) to (e),
- must, during the specified period, be refused entry into Namibia under section 10 of the Immigration Control Act.
- (2) Despite subregulation (1) a person who -
- (a) is not a Namibian citizen;
 - (b) does not hold a permanent residence permit for Namibia; or
 - (c) is not domiciled in Namibia or otherwise lawfully resident in Namibia;
- may enter Namibia from 1 September 2020, for the purpose of undertaking tourism activities in Namibia, subject to the Immigration Control Act, subregulation (3), the health regulations and other applicable regulations.
- (3) Persons permitted to enter Namibia under subregulation (2) may not enter Namibia unless such persons at the time of entering Namibia present to an authorised officer a negative SARS-COV-2 PCR test result that -
- (a) is not older than seven days; and
 - (b) was issued by a laboratory that is certified in the country of issue to issue SARS-COV-2 PCR test results.
- (4) Persons permitted to enter Namibia must, two weeks before entering Namibia, in writing inform the relevant Namibian diplomatic representative in the country of intended departure of the intention to enter Namibia.

- (5) Subject to the Immigration Control Act, a person who -
- (a) is a driver of a motor vehicle, an operator of a locomotive, a pilot in command of an aircraft or a captain or master of a shipping vessel transporting goods;
 - (b) performs any service relating to the operation of the vehicle referred to in paragraph (a); or
 - (c) performs a necessary service relating to the transportation of goods referred to in paragraph (a),
- in the course of business or trade or commerce may be allowed to enter Namibia if such entry is otherwise lawful.
- (6) Despite the provisions of subregulation (1), a person referred to in that subregulation may be allowed to enter Namibia if that person complies with or meets such requirements as may be determined by the Minister responsible for immigration issued pursuant to the Immigration Control Act.
- (7) A person who contravenes or fails to comply with subregulation (1), (3) or (5) commits an offence and is on conviction liable to a fine not exceeding N$2 000 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

13. Quarantine and COVID-19 testing

- (1) Any person who enters Namibia as contemplated in regulation 12 is subject to quarantine requirements as set out in and under these regulations and the health regulations or guidelines.
- (2) All persons permitted to enter Namibia in terms of regulation 12, except for persons who enter Namibia in accordance with the provisions of regulation 12(2), must on entering Namibia be tested for COVID-19 during the period of quarantine.
- (3) Except where subregulation (4) and (5) apply, all persons entering Namibia during the specified period are subject to mandatory quarantine at own cost.
- (4) The following categories of Namibian citizens may be quarantined at the cost of the State -
- (a) students enrolled for and undertaking a course of study at a school or an educational institution in Namibia or in a foreign country;
 - (b) State patients;
 - (c) health professionals;
 - (d) persons entering Namibia on humanitarian grounds;
 - (e) persons entering Namibia on official government business; or
 - (f) such persons as may be specified in the regulations issued under Sub-Article (5) of Article 26 of the Namibian Constitution.
- (5) Namibian citizens who are unable to pay for the cost of quarantine as required by these regulations may request, in the form and manner determined under the regulations issued under Sub-Article (5) of Article 26 of the Namibian Constitution, that the State cover the cost of their quarantine.
- (6) Namibian citizens who leave Namibia for private business during the specified period are, on entering Namibia during that period, subject to mandatory quarantine at own cost.
- (7) A person who unreasonably refuses to be quarantined or tested as specified in subregulation (1) or (2) commits an offence and is on conviction liable to a fine not exceeding N$2 000 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

14. Public transport

- (1) For the purposes of this regulation -
"vehicle" means a vehicle as defined in section 1 of the Road and Transport Act, 1999 (Act No. 22 of 1999) and includes a locomotive that is used for the transportation of passengers or goods by railway; and
"motor vehicle" means a motor vehicle as defined in section 1 of the Road and Transport Act, 1999 (Act No. 22 of 1999).
- (2) A person who transports goods on a vehicle may not carry a passenger on the vehicle unless the person carried in or on the vehicle is necessary for the operation of the vehicle during the course of business or trade or commerce of the person.
- (3) A person who conveys persons, whether for reward or for any other purpose, by means of a public or private motor vehicle, an animal-drawn vehicle or a pedal cycle may not transport -
 - (a) more than three persons, including the driver, in a four-seater motor vehicle;
 - (b) more than four persons, including the driver, in a five-seater motor vehicle;
 - (c) more than four persons, including the driver, in a seven-seater motor vehicle;
 - (d) a number of persons, including the driver, which exceeds half of the number of passengers allowed to be transported in a motor vehicle not otherwise provided for in this regulation;
 - (e) more than two persons, including the driver, in an animal-drawn vehicle; and
 - (f) any person other than the driver on a motorcycle, motor tricycle or pedal cycle.
- (4) The -
 - (a) manner in which children are to be counted for purposes of subregulation (3) is as provided for in regulation 250 of the Road Traffic and Transport Regulations, published under Government Notice No. 53 of 30 March 2001; and
 - (b) number of seats of a motor vehicle is for the purposes of subregulation (3) determined in accordance with regulation 252 of the Road Traffic and Transport Regulations, published under Government Notice No. 53 of 30 March 2001.
- (5) Every owner or operator of a vehicle used for the purposes of conveying persons or goods for reward must -
 - (a) ensure that the driver of a public vehicle carrying passengers in terms of an authorisation granted in terms of any law wears a mask and the driver must ensure that all passengers wear masks at all times;
 - (b) provide alcohol-based hand sanitisers for use in the vehicle; and
 - (c) regularly disinfect or cause the regular disinfection of the vehicle used for the purposes of conveying persons or goods, and before and after each conveyance.
- (6) A person who contravenes or fails to comply with subregulation (2), (3) or (5) commits an offence and is on conviction liable to a fine not exceeding N$2 000 or imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

15. Applicability of Act No. 1 of 2015

- (1) Despite the provisions of section 96 of the Public and Environmental Health Act, 2015 (Act No. 1 of 2015), the provisions of Part 3 of that Act are, for purposes of these regulations, brought into operation.
- (2) In order to attain the objectives of subregulation (1), any provision of the Public Health Act, 1919 (Act No. 36 of 1919) that is inconsistent with any provision of Part 3 of the Public and Environmental Health Act, 2015 (Act No. 1 of 2015) is suspended to the extent of the inconsistency during the period that this regulation is in force.

- (3) Despite the provisions of section 22(2) of the Public and Environmental Health Act, 2015 (Act No. 1 of 2015) the disease caused by the severe acute respiratory syndrome coronavirus 2 (SARS-CoV-2) is deemed to be a formidable epidemic disease and it is declared that the threatened outbreak of that disease necessitates the measures referred to in section 29(1) of that Act.

16. Offences and penalties

- (1) A person commits an offence if that person -
- (a) not being an authorised officer, by words, conduct or demeanour falsely represents himself or herself to be an authorised officer;
 - (b) hinders, obstructs or improperly attempts to influence an authorised officer when exercising or performing a power or function conferred or imposed by or under these regulations or another law;
 - (c) furnishes or gives false or misleading information to an authorised officer; or
 - (d) does anything calculated to improperly influence an authorised officer concerning a matter connected with the functions of the authorised officer.
- (2) A person commits an offence if that person, through any form of media, including social media, knowingly or without having taken reasonable steps to ascertain the correctness of any information -
