(ii) the commissioner may, in his discretion, direct that the pension awarded in respect of a child shall continue after he attains the age of eighteen years, or that a similar pension be awarded in respect of any son or daughter not being a child as in this Act defined, if he or she is, in the opinion of the commissioner, unable by reason of mental or physical disability to earn an income, for so long as it might reasonably have been expected that the deceased workman would have continued to contribute towards his or her support;". section 15 of Act 51 of 1956, section 6 of Act 7 of 1961 and section 4 of Act 58 of 1967.

9. Section 43*bis* of the principal Act is hereby amended by the substitution for subsection (1) of the following subsection: Amendment of section 43*bis* of Act 30 of 1941, as inserted by section 17 of Act 51 of 1956 and amended by section 6 of Act 9 of 1970.

"(1) The Minister may, on the recommendation of the commissioner, by notice in the Gazette order that all pensions payable under section 39 or 40 of this Act at the commencement of the Workmen's Compensation Amendment Act, 1974, or awarded subsequently, in respect of accidents which happened before the commencement of the Workmen's Compensation Amendment Act, 1971 (Act No. 60 of 1971), shall with effect from a date to be determined by the Minister, be payable as if such accidents had happened on the date upon which the last-mentioned Act commenced.".

10. Section 51 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the addition of the following subsections: Amendment of section 51 of Act 30 of 1941, as amended by section 24 of Act 36 of 1949.

"(4) An employer other than an employer individually liable who fails to report the happening of an accident to a workman in his employ in the prescribed manner and within thirty days after having been notified or having gained knowledge thereof, shall, in addition to any other penalty, pay to the commissioner a penalty as determined by the commissioner, but not exceeding the full amount of the compensation payable in respect of such an accident: Provided that the commissioner, if satisfied that the default was due to inadvertence or to some cause over which the employer had no control, or that the payment of the full amount of the capitalized value as determined in terms of subsection (5), would be likely to result in the insolvency or assignment of the estate of such employer or, where the employer is a company, the winding-up thereof, may waive the provisions of this subsection in whole or in part or accept payment in instalments or otherwise as the commissioner may determine.

(5) For the purpose of subsection (4) 'compensation' includes the cost of medical aid and any amount paid or payable in terms of section 40 (2), 44, 76 (2) or 86 (2), and in the case of a continuing liability, also the capitalized value, as determined by the commissioner, of the pension (irrespective of whether a lump sum is at any time paid in lieu of the whole or a portion of such pension in terms of section 49), periodical payment or allowance, as the case may be, which constitutes the liability.".

11. (1) Section 70 of the principal Act is hereby amended— Amendment of section 70 of Act 30 of 1941, as amended by section 13 of Act 7 of 1961 and section 2 of Act 27 of 1970.

(a) by the substitution for subparagraph (i) of subsection (1) (a) of the following subparagraph:

"(i) the State, including Parliament, the South African Bantu Trust established under the Bantu Trust and Land Act, 1936 (Act No. 18 of 1936), the government of any territory which is a self-governing territory within the Republic in terms of any law, a territorial authority established under the Bantu Authorities Act, 1951 (Act No. 68 of 1951), a legislative council established under the Development of Self-government for
